

THE
AFTER PARTY
TOWARD BETTER CHRISTIAN POLITICS

A PROJECT BORN OF FRIENDSHIP AMONG

David French, Russell Moore, and Curtis Chang

Our allegiance to Jesus ought to transcend our political identities.

Extreme partisanship over promises and under delivers, inevitably leading Christians toward combativeness, cynicism, and exhaustion. The After Party does the complex—but necessary—theological work of reframing a Christian political identity.

It is an invitation to model the virtues of hope and humility, bearing Christian witness to a broken and bitterly divided world.

Through a creative combination of brief video-based teachings, interactive exercises, and group discussions, the free online course recenters our politics on the person of Jesus Christ.
